Parent may remain with student during the breakout sessions but will return to S142 for a parent session.

CSP students will be combined with another group based on space available and then escorted by a student ambassador to their advising session.

One Student Ambassador will be assigned to each group and will escort their group to each session. They will remain in the lab after the last breakout session for advising.