Check Out Our Fresh New Look!

Thanks to the generosity of donors – former UC President Santa Ono, Clermont faculty, staff, students, alums, and friends among them – we’ve made some big improvements in the library this summer. We’re excited to see students enjoying our refreshed space to collaborate, study, and relax once again this year.

Some of our newest additions on the 1st floor for fall 2016 include:

- New lounge-type chairs
- New collaboration tables with built-in electric
- A refreshed, relocated computer area
- Bearcat-card enabled photocopying

Stay tuned for more student-centered improvements, including a relocated service point, in spring 2017.

iPad Reserves, Refreshed

We’ve refreshed our fleet of iPads available for the iPad Reserves Program just in time for fall term. (The previous fleet was purchased in 2009.) Needless to say, this upgrade was long overdue – these iPads are faster and will offer better support for our students. Video editing, sound recording, specialized apps – there are too many instructional possibilities to name here!

The iPad Reserves Program was initiated to promote student access to technology in support of the curricular needs of a Clermont College course or program. Faculty may simply place an iPad on reserve for their student(s) and checkout for 7 days. To connect your students to our iPads, contact Public Services Manager, Natalie Winland.

In Order to Serve You Better: Website Migration

In collaboration with UC Libraries, we migrated our Clermont College Library website to a new web template in December 2015. This shift makes it easier for our students to transition to Clifton and other UC campuses by providing a more seamless library search experience.

Just like our old site, the new site also features direct links to Clermont-specific library initiatives, including textbooks, e-device lending, and research guides for Clermont College degrees and programs.

If you haven't already, visit our new site, here:

Who's My Teaching Librarian? ...Collections Librarian?

Providing personalized service is all about building relationships — and that's why each subject and discipline at Clermont College has at least one designated librarian liaison. Faculty can contact this person to schedule library instruction, ensure access to relevant course materials, and receive personalized research assistance.

To find your designated library rep, contact Katie Foran-Mulcahy or check out our website
