Financial Requirements Overview

The Aviation Technology program at UC Clermont College requires additional costs beyond the standard tuition and fees. Please read the information below carefully and acknowledge your understanding by signing at the bottom of this form.

1. Program Costs Overview:

- Tuition and Fees: Standard tuition and fees are required based on enrollment status.
- Flight Fees: An estimated $44,000 over two years is required for flight training. These fees are above and beyond the cost of tuition and cover the necessary flight training hours and certifications to complete the program.

2. Financial Aid Information: Federal Financial Aid Limitations:

- Dependent Students (under 24, not married, no dependents, not in the military):
 - First-Year Annual Loan Limit: $5,500 (maximum of $3,500 in subsidized loans).
 - Second-Year Annual Loan Limit: $6,500.
- Independent Students (do not meet dependent criteria above):
 - First-Year Annual Loan Limit: $9,500.
 - Second-Year Annual Loan Limit: $10,500.

Students are encouraged to explore all available funding options, including:

- Private loans through banks or other financial institutions.
- Scholarships or grants from aviation or educational organizations.
